

German Army Mountain Warfare World War Two, Mountain War

Copyright © 2008, Breaker McCoy, Editor

This book is copyright protected and may not be reproduced in part or whole, or sold, without the express written consent from the author of this book. All Rights Reserved.

www.quikmaneuvers.com

Table Of Contents: 16 Chapters, Appendix

Introduction

Section I. German Doctrine Of Mountain Warfare

Chapters

1. Combat In High Mountains

- a. General
- b. Command
- c. Effect on Firing

2. Reconnaissance Marching Security; Shelter

- a. Marches

- (1) General
- (2) Order of march
- (3) Time factors
- (4) March discipline

- b. Security
- c. Shelter

3. Combat

- a. General
- b. Attack
 - (1) Advance and deployment
 - (2) Effect of terrain
 - (3) Types of attack
- c. Defense and Withdrawal

4. Motorized And Mechanized Operations

5. Air Operations

6. Mountain Infantry

- a. Mountain Rifle Company
 - (1) Squad
 - (2) Platoon
 - (3) Company
- b. Mountain Machine-gun Company
 - (1) General
 - (2) Marches and reconnaissance
 - (3) Employment in combat
- c. Mountain Infantry Battalion
- d. Mountain Antitank Company

7. Mountain Artillery

- a. General
- b. Reconnaissance and Observation
- c. Marches
- d. Employment in Combat

8. Mountain Engineers

- a. Missions
- b. Employment in Combat

9. Mountain Signal and Communications Troops

- a. Missions

- b. Marches
- c. Employment in Combat
- d. Technical Considerations
 - (1) Wire communication
 - (2) Radio communication
 - (3) Visual signal communication

10. Mountain Services

- a. Mountain Medical Service
- b. Mountain Veterinary Service
- c. Mountain Supply

11. Training

- a. General
- b. Individual And Unit Training

12. Mountaineering

- a. General
- b. Scale of Requirements
- c. Technique
 - (1) Marching
 - (2) Climbing
 - (3) Special climbing equipment
- d. Bivouacs
- e. Self-preservation; Orientation

13. Army Mountain Guides

- a. General
- b. Guide Training
- c. Missions Of Guides

14. Clothing; Identification; Individual Equipment

- a. Clothing
- b. Identification
- c. Individual Equipment
- d. Food

15. Organization; Armament; Equipment

- a. General
- b. Mountain Infantry Regiment
- c. Mountain Infantry Battalion

- d. Heavy-Weapons Company
- e. Reinforced Rifle Company
- f. Mountain Antitank Battalion
- g. Reconnaissance Battalion
- h. Mountain Artillery Regiment
- i. Mountain Engineer Battalion
- j. Mountain Signal Battalion
- k. Mountain Services
- l. Replacement Battalion

16. Jager Divisions

Appendix: Artillery Firing in Mountains

Peculiarities Of Firing

Graphic Firing Tables

Use Of The Graphic Firing Table

- a. Determining Trajectory Values
 - (1) Change in elevation
 - (2) Masks
- b. Angle of Fall; Angle of Impact
- c. Time of Flight; Drift; Fuze-setting
- d. Dispersion
- e. Metro Data and Masks
- f. Location of a Gun Position
- g. Special Firing Precautions