

Indochina: Priests of a Dead God

French vs. the Viet Minh: 1st Indochina War

Copyright ©2001, Breaker McCoy

This book is copyright protected and may not be reproduced in part or whole, or sold, without the express written consent from the author of this book. All Rights Reserved.

www.quikmaneuvers.com

Table of Contents: 24 Chapters, 9 Appendixes

Introduction

Chapters

1. The West vs. the Viet Minh, 1945
2. The French Indochina Expeditionary Corps
3. The Vietminh Army
4. Blooding the Main Force
5. Vietminh Bases and Logistics
6. French Territorial Command Organization
7. Lessons of the French Indochina War
8. The French Compared to the Americans
9. The French Organize for War

10. French Intelligence and Deep Commandos
11. French Footmobile Infantry
12. French Desant Units and Operations
13. French Paratroop Raids
14. French Mobile Group Organizations
15. French Mobile Group Operations
16. French Combat Operations: 1947-50
17. French Strategy, 1951
18. The French Hoa Binh Campaign: 1951-52
19. French Combat Operations: 1952
20. French Combat Operations: 1952-53
21. The Dien Bien Phu Campaign: 1952-53
22. The Battle of Dien Bien Phu
23. French Opportunities and Dien Bien Phu
24. French Influence on American Strategy

Appendixes

- 1: French Riverine Forces
- 2: Napoleonic Principles Forgotten by the French During the First Indochina War
- 3: Campaign Season
- 4: French Airfields, 1953
- 5: Report by Anonymous French Officer
- 6: French Mobile Group Data
- 7: Viet Minh Infantry Battalion
- 8: French Paratroop Battalions
- 9: More on Dien Bien Phu

Bibliography