

Has 'MoveOn' Subverted US Special Forces?

MoveOn.org is a leftist internet site run by a virulent group of leftist propagandists. It parrots an intense hatred for the USA and its traditions. Any day of the week MoveOn's virulence can be viewed on their Internet web site. MoveOn has subverted many groups and forums on the Internet. They have also moved into military blogs, and are even reaching into US Special forces.

How can the average, sane citizen tell who has fallen into MoveOn's subversive orbit? The ideology of a group as represented by its beliefs and propaganda can be ascertained simply by the messages that it sends out. If the messages repeated by a group are the same as MoveOn's rhetoric, then the TARGET GROUP HAS BEEN SUBVERTED BY MoveOn.

A shocking fact is that a number of other Internet groups also parrot the MoveOn propaganda line. Among those groups is literally every one of the forty or more internet "white nationalist" forums, over a dozen ostensible conservative or right wing forums, and five supposedly patriotic military reform internet organizations. It is strange that so many groups, professing to be patriotic in one way or another, promote exactly the same values as the communist MoveOn organization. In fact, deceivers posing as white nationalists or patriots can now be identified as phonies by comparing their rants to MoveOn rants (content analysis). All such groups refer to their enemies as "neo-cons."

Sample Quotes From the MoveOn Web Site

Another 9/11 conspiracy theory

I have spent the morning reading the web page <http://www.scholarsfor911truth.org>

With the release of the new movie about FLIGHT 93, Americans are once again having the 9/11 myth endorsed. It is plain to anyone with half a brain that the truth about what happened on 9/11 is a created reality. "Wag the dog" all over again.

It is OBVIOUS that Flight 93 was annihilated in the air, that it was NOT a commercial jetliner that damaged the pentagon and I believe that the twin towers were detonated. From what I am reading the 9/11 commission's report contains a denial that the physical structure of the towers was as they were built, in order to support the "natural collapse" theory..

NO I am not one of those people who love to invent conspiracies. I am a 63 year old lady who refuses to be manipulated by the government into ignoring evidence and data.

My husband is convinced that those who created this horror will stop at nothing, to maintain their power, including if necessary, nuclear incidents, (more fear mongering which worked so well in 2004,) the establishment of martial law and the prevention of further elections.

WE HAVE TO ENSURE THAT THE PUBLIC WAKES UP AND STARTS LOOKING at the EVIDENCE. We need MOVE ON to use their powers to stop this farce before the sheep out there re-elect this party. They are doing all they can to ensure it with paper-less voting etc. Getting a few candidates elected is simply NOT going to get the job done with corruption such as it exists!

Christians and Jews are "Nuts"

http://www.actionforum.com/forum/scores.html?&comment_id=230305

Christians ("so-called..") believe that Jesus (a Jewish rabbi and wannabe Jewish messiah) died for them and saved their souls when he couldn't even save his own skin let alone the Jewish people. Jews consider any non-Jew as inferior ("the Chosen"). Moslems want to convert everybody. I hear that Buddhists are not that tolerant either.

My conclusion: turn churches, temples and mosques into social centers and priests, rabbis, etc into social workers to help the poor and the homeless. If people need religion, let them practice at home. Religion should not be subsidized by the State. The world would be a much better place without fundamentalists of all sorts.

We would have more women candidates, more black, hispanic, asian descent, native-american, middle eastern descent that truly represent our society. Not fat, white, rich Christians who represent themselves and their fat rich friends.

MoveOn wishes the U.S. had never existed, praises Hitler AND YET DAMNS Bush as Hitler?
http://www.actionforum.com/forum/scores.html?&comment_id=285174

First, you're right about one thing: Bush is no Hitler. Hitler was a socialist and believed in something beside money. He did not dodge real military service and he believed at least in Germany which was a real nation and not a corporation like the US. Moreover, Hitler did not use depleted uranium and phosphorous to burn people alive. He did not condone the torture of prisoners "for fun" or "to relieve stress". Second, regarding 9/11, you obviously are ill informed. Let me refer you to a few videos and web sites that might open your Jewish eyes (no offense, I am Jewish myself and was once blind too).

Hello, America. George W. Bush is the AntiChrist. He is the murderer of Justice and Liberty and Truth. You have let him come into your house, and act like he is your elected president. Bush is Big Brother. Big Brother is Satan.

Bring Black Troops home/send bush's daughters

To serve in the US to protect the homeland and our human rights, being violated by the Bush Regime. I recently spoke to an African American Marine Officer, who was disturbed about how Black Marines are being treated prior and during Bush's illegal occupation of Iraq. He related to me that if it wasn't for the low ranking Black Marines who were being discriminated against, and he felt they needed his help, he himself would resign. For this and other reasons Blacks serving in the armed services should not become soldiers of fortune, but instead should be assigned to protect the human rights of African Americans, and all people regardless of color or faith. This country should also realize why Blacks are not obligated to shed blood for this country. They will not be able to share in the spoils and benefits if any are derived from this invasion, and others. They nor their love ones in their life time will receive equal opportunities in this country. For Blacks to receive the discipline basically the military have to offer, and minorities are so much in need, I would suggest that they recruit Blacks, keep them in safe positions state side and not allow them a weapon, because they may use it against those they perceive to be their enemy.

Concepts Repeatedly Promoted By MoveOn

Following is a sample of the weird and treasonous outlook of the MoveOn organization taken from their internet web site. Any day or night you can go there and read what they believe in. The following is just a sample, see for yourself. Here is what MoveOn promotes. It is also what "white nationalists" and a number of other internet groups promote while pretending to be patriots:

- 9-11 was treason carried out by the US government (Islam is innocent)
- I hate neo-cons (they want to build up national defense)

- I hate conservatives (they are stupid)
- Obama is the man (black-skinned people are like gods)
- I hate Christianity (Islam is better)
- I love afro-Americans (Black people are wonderful; kill white people)
- I hate Jews (Enemies of Islam)
- I hate President Bush (demonic antichrist)
- I hate Republicans (they support Bush)
- I Love Muslims (God's gift to the world)
- I hate the USA (stands in the way of Islamic imperialism)
- Bring the troops home (do not fight Muslims)
- High taxes and high gas prices do not matter (Most leftists have plenty of money and feel no empathy for the middle and working classes)

On Stormfront, which the Left and black racists slander as a "white supremacy" forum, over 57% of the participants in one poll said they would vote for Obama. US and Canadian leftist, Marxists and black racists now run Stormfront. They have several groups of white-hating Marxist-racists on the site 24-7. Anybody who dares criticize the usual abuses of affirmative action by black parasites and the tyranny of leftists is verbally attacked and called names. Those who fight back are kicked off the site because every moderator is one of the infiltrators. That procedure is the norm for every forum that advertises itself as pro-white, conservative, right wing or objective purveyors of World War II history. Leftists and black racist subversives now control every historical and cultural site extant on the web. They have so many "religious", "social service," "political", "academic" and "corporate" leftist personnel, who do not work. They sit at their "work" computers all day infiltrating, subverting and intimidating Americans to shut up and obey. Political correctness riles the internet except for a few brave new blogs. All the White, Asian and Hispanic members are busy working to survive as wage slaves. When such people try to participate on the forums, they are crushed and tossed out. The red revolution is already in control of America's communications infrastructure, media, armed forces, political parties, universities, public schools, and intelligence agencies. If the muslim imperialists were not allied with America's domestic traitor tyrants (20% telling 80% what to do), I would join them. I would join anybody that has the guts to tear down this new American totalitarianism. Now they are trying to elect (buy, lie, cheat or steal) America's first afro-racist/Marxist dictator as president...and Obama is not even a citizen of the USA. How ironic?

MoveOn Propaganda and Influence

It is a measure of the corruption and depravity of several segments of American society that MoveOn ideology is promoted by groups that appear to have a different agenda. For example, the MoveOn agenda is subscribed to by the following groups:

- 98% of the supposed white nationalist internet forums like Stormfront
- 60% of the supposed conservative or right wing forums like Right Wing
- All of the supposed, patriotic military reform propagandists series of self-proclaimed “military think-tanks.”

For those interested, here is a partial list:

- 1st Tactical Studies Group \(Airborne!!\) - M113 and airborne rants: Also promotion of metallic housing instead of tents and MoveOn propaganda
- 3rd Amphibious Warfare Studies Group \(Maritime\) – Anti-USMC rants.
- 4th Tactical Studies Group \(Conspiracy\) - JFK assassination conspiracy stuff combined with MoveOn rants
