

Waffen SS Foreign Units

European SS in the Anti-Bolshevik War

Copyright © 2010, Breaker McCoy, Editor

This book was copyright protected and may not be reproduced in part or whole, or sold, without the express written consent from the author of this book. All Rights Reserved.

www.quikmaneuvers.com

Table of Contents: 26 Chapters, 9 Appendices

Assault Generation

Introduction

Chapters

1. 20th SS Estonian SS Division, Narva

2. 20th SS Infantry Division Last Battles in Germany 10/1944 - 5/1945
3. The 19th SS Latvian Division and the 3rd Battle for Kurland
4. The French 33rd SS Division Charlemagne
5. Foreign Personnel in SS Special Units
6. Foreigners in the Elite SS "Wiking" Division
7. Freikorps Denmark of the Waffen-SS
8. Norwegian Support of the Third Reich
9. The SS Norwegian Legion
10. SS Skijaeger Battalion, Norge
11. SS Panzer Grenadier Regiment Norge
12. The Dutch SS Brigade
13. The Belgian Flemish (Flanders) SS Legion
14. Foreign SS Units Become Elite Troops
15. Formation of the 3rd Germanic Panzer Corps
16. 3rd SS Germanic Panzer Corps, Initial Combat
17. 3rd SS Panzer Corps Defends Narva
18. 3rd SS Panzer Corps: Driven from Narva
19. Nordland SS Division Defends Germany
20. The Flemish SS Assault Brigade
21. The French SS Assault Brigade
22. The Walloon SS Assault Brigade
23. Waffen SS, Last Ditch Recruitment
24. The SS Spanish Legion

25. Success of SS Foreign Combatants

26. Foreign SS Make the Last Sacrifice

Appendices

1. Foreign SS Brigades: 1943-44

2. 6th Waffen-SS Latvian Corps

3. 15th Latvian SS Freiwilligen Infantry Division

4. Knights Crosses Awarded By SS Division

5. 24 Waffen-SS Divisions of Foreign Volunteers

6. Hungarian Formations of the Waffen-SS

7. SS Knight's Cross Winners: Foreign Volunteers

8. Norwegian SS Who Won German Valor Medals

9. Allied Murder of European SS POWs

Bibliography